

Amount Requested: $2,300,000

The project will enhance patient safety software applications being developed by the U.S. Army. The project would provide additional features in terms of data analysis, "quality" data mining, "adverse reactions" data mining, and patient specific safety rules implementation. Such a system will help reduce adverse events and help healthcare personnel monitor such events in an automated manner.